Statute of the ICCN

(Inter-City Intangible Cultural Cooperation Network)

Preamble

The participants of the International Workshop of Local Government Administrators on ‘Sustainable Development, Safeguarding the Intangible Cultural Heritage and Promoting Inter-City Network held in Gangneung, Republic of Korea, from the 8th to the 11th of June 2005;

- Recognising the crucial role of the intangible cultural heritage in sustainable development;

- Noting that the intangible cultural heritage is under threat from globalisation and unsustainable developmental policies;

- Considering the challenges facing local governments in safeguarding the intangible cultural heritage and the need to take appropriate measures to develop strategies and policies in this area;

- Endorsing the initiative of the Gangneung City Government and the Korean National Commission for UNESCO to create an Inter-City Intangible Cultural Cooperation Network (hereafter referred to as “ICCN”);

Establish ICCN as a platform for the world-wide collaboration of mayors and local government units for safeguarding of the intangible cultural heritage, as envisioned in the Gangneung Declaration of 2004;

Article 1. Name and Legal Status

The name of the Network is Inter-City Intangible Cultural Cooperation Network (ICCN). The Network is a non-governmental organization, open to any local government willing to share the ideas and vision of ICCN

Article 2. Objectives

The ICCN is committed to action-oriented policies concerning the safeguarding of the intangible cultural heritage, and agrees to:

1. Use the ICCN in formulating and implementing informed and balanced developmental and cultural strategies and policies in which sustainable development and the safeguarding of intangible heritage rank as priorities among local governments;

2. Incorporate and implement the UNESCO Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage (particularly the definitions therein and articles 14, 15 and 18); as attached in Annex I;
3. Promote the relationship between local communities and local governments in regards to the safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage, and to improve awareness as to why such relationships are fundamentally necessary;
4. Utilize the ICCN as a means to meet the challenges of globalisation as they affect cultural diversity, and to preserve the cultural diversity of communities consisting of unique and invaluable local traditional cultures.

Article 3. Membership

The membership of ICCN is structured in the following categories: Full Members and Associate Members.

1. Full Members: Full Members are accredited local authorities and regional, national institutions (as the ministry level) represented by their leaders. A Full Member has the right to exercise one vote at the General Assembly, propose items for inclusion in the provisional agenda of the General Assembly, be represented at the ICCN meetings and events, initiate and promote the cooperative projects within ICCN, and can be elected as a member of the Executive Board.

To be a full member, a candidate should

- Pay annual membership fee
- Make an official agreement at the level of city or organization
- Meet recommendation of GA

The evaluation on membership status will be made at GA. Therefore, full members should pay its annual membership fee and report its activities, according to the recommendation of GA, latest by a month before GA. When members fail to meet its requirements as the full members, their rights as full members will be suspended

2. Associate Members: Associate Members are accredited NGOs, organizations of custodians, performers and other actors of intangible cultural heritage, specialized individuals and organizations for safeguarding of the cultural heritage. Associate Members may participate without voting rights in the deliberations of the General Assembly, may participate in the ICCN meetings and events, and if associate members pay the membership fee, they can exercise rights in the following situations.

- Maximum of three seats on the Board will be represented by associate members. In case of more than 3 associate members who have rights in action, the representatives of associate members will be elected.
- Voting right at the GA will be given to representatives of associate members. However, the numbers of representatives cannot exceed maximum 30% of full members.
- For NGOs and Individuals, it will be charged the lowest fee.

3. Admission: Membership of the ICCN shall be proposed by the Executive Board to the General Assembly. The proposal of the Board shall be subject to approval by the General Assembly:

① Qualifying members may express their wish to join ICCN by notifying the ICCN Secretariat; the Secretariat shall report this to the Executive Board for their consideration).

② The temporary membership will be given by the Board and announced at the GA/Workshop.

③ If the candidates meet conditions of (1) making the membership fee payment and (2) submitting the report on the annual progress until the next Board meeting, the membership will be examined and announced as full members.

④ The official membership certificate as ICCN Members will be given when the application is approved of its membership fully.

4. Finance: Members in the Network will pay their annual membership fee and self-finance activities associated with and/or arising from their membership as well as providing moral and technical support to ICCN;

5. Cooperation with UNESCO National Commission: Each Member will seek the advisory services of its UNESCO National Commission to ensure its actions at the local level are in conformity with UNESCO's global objectives for the safeguarding of the intangible cultural heritage.

Observers: A non-member city, which is participating in the ICCN Conference and wishes to join the network, may send a representative to the meeting as an observer.
